ANOTHER INTERESTING CASE. Another case of importance decided by the court was that of Chilis Banks vs. the State, from Chambers county, wherein the death penalty is affirmed. Banks was convicted of killing Martha Henderson over a year ago. An appeal was takenjon the ground that the indictment was that the defendant "killed and murdered ever, say no more than to reassert that Martha Henderson." Judge Hurt in his opinion holds that the words "did with malice aforethought kill Martha Henderson by shooting her with a pistol" constituted a valid indictment in the case.
